100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the surname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md., on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin overcoat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse clothing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses. I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice.

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c. BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE, Fairfax Court-House, Va.

The said negro is about 25 years of age, and about 5 feet six inches high, of a yellow complexion; he had on a blue cotton jacket, and linen trousers. When committed, he said he was the property of Mr. Elliot, of Baltimore, but now says he is the property of a Mr. Tyson, of the same place, and that he will be entitled to his freedom in a short time.
The owner is requested to come forward and prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the hay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

AGRICULTURAL.

By a letter from Bucks county, Pennsylvania, we learn, that "the drought continues, and surpasses any ever recollected here before. We have not had a rain to wet plough deep since April; and for the last six weeks not sufficient to lay the dust. The crops of corn and buckwheat must entirely fail in this neighborhood. Hay and oats produce only two-thirds to former years; and many people who have large farms, are now faddering their cattle as in winter. Water is extremely scarce also; and if we are not blessed with rain shortly I know not what the consequence will be."

From the Providence American.

It becomes our melancholy duty to announce, the awfully sudden death of Col. Thomas Smith Webb, formerly a very valuable citizen of Providence, and Past Master of the Grand Lodge of Rhode-Island. He died at Cleveland, Ohio, on his way to Columbus, in that state, where he was about establishing himself. A letter from Cleveland, dated July 6, communicated to a gentleman in this town, thus describes the circumstances which attended this sad and much lamented event:—

"Mr. Webb came to this place yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, in the steam boat, apparently in perfect health, and informed me that he wished to get a conveyance to Columbus, in this state, but did not succeed until this morning, when he purchased a horse, waggon, and harness, and got ready to start. At about 8 o'clock this morning he went into his lodging room, as it appears, to change his clothes, and was there, as near as could be ascertained, about one hour, when Mr. Merwin, the keeper of the house, went to his room to inform him that his carriage was ready, and found him on his bed in a fit. Physicians were with him immediately, and every exertion was used to save him; but in vain. He breathed his last, at 10 minutes before 7 o'clock this afternoon, with scarcely a struggle. He never had his senses, or spoke, after he was first discovered in the fit. The physicians give it as their opinion that he died in an apoplexy. His remains will be interred to-morrow afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in Masonic order. Col. Webb was author of the Free Mason's Monitor, and at his death, Deputy General Grand High Priest of the G. G. R. Arch Chapter of the United States.

Fayetteville, (N. C.) August 5.
EFFECTS OF LIGHTNING.

In the vicinity of this town there were 24 sheep killed by lightning on Tuesday evening last; they were found among the limbs of a large oak that had been cut down in Capt. William Lord's pasture, the flock consisted of 37—a large proportion to be killed by a flash of lightning.

From the Boston Gazette.

A gentleman on his return from the western country, informs us, that while passing through Tennessee, he met a travelling house, drawn by six horses, of 29 persons in the whole. They reported themselves from the District of Maine, bound to Alabama, where they intended to inhabit the same.

A new ten-horse boat has commenced plying between Lepkire and Montreal, a distance of nine miles.

There are seven fine steam boats lying between Montreal and Quebec—and two splendid ones between Whitehall and St. John's, on Lake Champlain.

Travelling at this season from the states to the Canadas, is fashionable, easy, expeditious and interesting.

From the N. York Com. Advertiser.

LATEST FROM LIVERPOOL.

Arrived last evening, the ship Remittance, Capt. Holmes, in 48 days from Liverpool. London papers to the 15th June, are received—three days later than our former advices. They furnish very little of interest. Cotton had declined a farthing per pound, and rice was down to 19s per cwt. Stocks were looking up. The loan bill passed on the 14th June, in committee, in the house of lords. In the house of commons, on the 11th June, the foreign enlistment bill was read a second time, and ordered to a third reading. One of its provisions is, that it take effect within the united kingdom on the first of August, and without on the first of November.

Extract of a letter from Liverpool, dated June 17, 1819.
"The cotton market is dull and declining. A fall of 6 per cent. is expected soon to be laid on this article, on the average relative value of the descriptions, instead of the present July of 2s 7d per 100 lbs. A parcel of 500 bbls. of sweet Baltimore flour in bond, was sold to-day at 30s per bbl.; and 1000 barrels of N. York sour at 27s 3d."

Liverpool Market, June 17.—Cotton, upland 11d a 12d. N. Orleans 11d a 13d.—Sea Island 22d a 2s 6d. Tobacco 3d a 7d. Rice 19s a 20s. Flour, Am. 48s. Ditto four 28s. Ashes, pot 38s a 40s. Pearl 33s a 46s. Tar 13s a 15s. Turpentine 10s 6 a 12s 6.

London, June 15.

In the house of commons on Monday, the cash payments bill was read a third time and passed, almost without a word being said upon its general tendency. Mr. Elice proposed a clause, which was adopted; giving to the bank the option of paying their notes either in bullion or gold coin, after the 1st of May, 1821, instead of being restricted, as it otherwise would have been from making any payments in specie till 1823. Mr. Manning, also proposed an additional clause to the bill, specifying the precise period and amount of the instalments to be paid to the bank, in liquidation of the debts due by the government—but it was subsequently withdrawn, upon the assurance of the chancellor of the exchequer, that all the objects which it aimed to secure, would be more regularly provided for in a clause of the appropriation act.

The royal assent was yesterday given to the American convention bill. The commissioners were, the Lord Chancellor, the Marquis of Winchester, and the Earl of Shaftsbury.

French papers of Friday arrived last night. The funds are rising—5 per cent, 68 50.

The average price of wheat from the returns received in the week ended the 5th June, is 68s. 6d. per quarter.

Mr. Bagot, and suite landed at Portsmouth on Thursday from the Forth frigate, under appropriate salutes, and immediately set off for London. The commissioners for settling the boundary line, are going on in the most satisfactory manner, and expected to end their labors in October. In almost all cases of differences the points in dispute are conceded in favor of this country. The conduct of the Americans, of all ranks, at Washington and Annapolis, to the officers and crew of the Forth, while she lay in the Chesapeake, discovered the most amicable and friendly disposition. It seemed to our officers as though a radical change had been effected in the feelings and views of the Americans. An interchange of civilities daily passed between the officers of the Essex, and Ontario, lying there, and the Forth. It is understood, an admitted fact, that not less than two thirds of the crew of the Essex were British seamen, who had become American citizens by the usual form of legislative protection. During their mutual friendly visits, some one of the crew of the Forth recognized a ship-mate in almost every boat which came along side. On one occasion, of a boat's crew consisting of 12 men, 7 of them discovered their original character. The Columbus, a remarkably fine new two decked ship, pierced for 105 guns, was fitting out at Washington. Com. Rodgers, president of the navy board, is expected to hold his broad pendant in her for the Mediterranean station, &c. &c.

From the N. York Evening Post.

Petitions from all quarters were pouring in against the foreign enlistment bill.

The chancellor of the exchequer, in bringing forward his budget of ways and means for the support of the nation, proposes an additional duty on malt—which Mr. Calvert, a member of the house, gives as his opinion, should it prevail, would ruin nine-tenths of the malsters in the country.

Orator Hunt has been prosecuted for his proportion of the expenses attending the late Westminster election, and a verdict obtained against him.

Cotton Trade.—In the house of lords, 14th June, Lord Kenyon moved the second reading of the bill for regulating the hours of labor of children in cotton factories. If the present were a question of merely morbid sensibility, in that case he should be far, very far, from addressing their lordships in favor of the bill; but he felt that it was one of practical humanity, which required the interference of the legislature. Neither should he have proposed such a measure, had he conceived the common law sufficient to counteract the evils of the present system. In consequence of the objections which had on former occasions been urged against the agitation of this question, he thought it necessary to state, that he had the authority of several magistrates and clergymen residing in Manchester, Stockport and their vicinities, to assert, that the recent disturbances in the manufacturing districts had no connection whatever with the discussion of this topic in parliament. During the progress of this measure, various opinions were stated respecting the degree of distress which children suffered in the factories, and the evidence on this point on the part of the bill, still remained uncontradicted.

It could not be denied that the hours of work were not fewer than 14, 15, and even in some places, than 16 hours out of the 24; neither could it be contradicted that the heat of the factories was so high as 85, 87, and even 90 degrees. Attempts had been made to show, on the authority of medical men, that the employment of children in these factories was not injurious to their health, and some learned gentlemen of Manchester had indeed given evidence to that effect. He did not mean to impute any thing improper to those gentlemen, who no doubt gave their evidence under a conviction of its truth; but they had been called in by the master manufacturers of Manchester, and the factories were shewn to them at a time and under circumstances very favorable to their own views and wishes, and the medical gentlemen were induced thereby to give opinions flattering to the general state of the factories. The present measure had been objected to by some noble lords, as if it would prove injurious to the cotton trade of the country; but if we could believe the accuracy of this representation, he should not have prayed their lordships to give it their sanction. It appeared by the evidence taken before the committee, that not less than 11,000,000 of property was sunk in the cotton manufactory, and it was stated by some of the witnesses that 27,000,000 were annually expended in this branch of our trade. It was stated that 60,000 persons were engaged in this trade—and by some it was asserted, that the laborers employed in it were not fewer than 120,000. The average rate of wages to adults was about 30s. a week, and to children 7s. a week. The employment of so great a number of persons, and the distribution of sums so large, doubtless ought not to be meddled with, unless it might be done with perfect safety; and he trusted that this might be effected, when it was considered how unimportant the trifling charge must be which was proposed by the promoters of this bill. The change would be less felt, because the trade was at the present moment in a very prosperous state. The principle of the present bill was the same as of that which was passed in 1802, respecting the regulation of apprentices. The condition of children at that time was not thought unworthy of their lordship's attention, and, he trusted, they would not now be less mindful of the interests of humanity. The question being put, strangers were ordered to withdraw, and the house divided.

For the second reading 27—against it 6—majority 21.

Some amendments were then made to the bill, and the report was ordered to be brought up on the Wednesday following; and the house adjourned.

London, June 15.

The French papers contain no intelligence of the slightest public interest. By a private letter from Naples of the 24th ult. it appears that their majesties the Emperor and Empress of Austria were to leave that city on the 30th ult. and to arrive at Rome on the 1st inst.—The same letter contradicts some exaggerated reports that were in circulation regarding disturbances in Sicily.

The appearance of Mr. Rothschild at Naples, gave occasion to a rumor that he had arrived to form financial arrangements with that government, which is contradicted in these papers. The discussion was resumed on the budget, when various parts of the public expenditure were voted. The further consideration of the budget was postponed to the following day.

An elopement, we understand, took place from the west end of the town on Tuesday.—The lady is a married woman, young, beautiful, and accomplished, the gallant an officer in the army. It is supposed they have directed their steps to Paris.

We stated last week that a matrimonial union is on the tapis between Mr. Henry Ball and lady Jane Paget. It is known that the gentleman is possessed of a large fortune. His annual income is splendid; in addition to which, he became entitled to the possession of between two and three hundred thousand pounds in the funds, on Wednesday se'night, the day he was of age.

Paris, June 12.

M. Felix Lepelletier, one of those who were exiled by virtue of the ordinance of the 24th of July, and the exceptions to the law of amnesty, has obtained permission to pass two months in France, for the arrangement of his family affairs. He has been a few days in Paris.

A woman of Verdi, in Italy, was delivered of five male children; two of them are dead, but three of them are still living. In the time of Adrian a woman of Alexandria was also delivered of 5 sons, all of whom lived to a good age.

We are informed that the king of France has just given permission to six more of the exiles included in the ordinances, to return to their country.

Madrid, May 25.

The Minister of Marine is still at Cadiz, to direct in person the grand armament, which in all appearance will be ready to sail by the end of July. A fine frigate of 36 guns, fitted out at Corunna, lately arrived at Cadiz with 15 transports under its convoy. In their passage they met many insurgent privateers who did not attempt to attack the convoy. They also expect at Cadiz a division from Carthage, consisting of two frigates and several transports, and several more from Barcelona. 100,000 piastres have just been sent from this city to Cadiz, to accelerate the preparations which are carrying on with double activity because the government feels the necessity of striking a great blow this year, the insurgents being more resolved than ever to defend their cause. All hopes of an arrangement with Buenos Ayres, and of its submission to the mother country, have vanished; nothing remains but to try the force of arms. All the accounts from South America give reason to presume that the struggle will be bloody and desperate.—May the result be happy.

From the Philadelphia Gazette.

Extract of Capt. Maffit's letter, dated "Havana, March 27, 1818.

"I was robbed of the east end of this island by a privateer under the patriot flag, commanded by a mulatto, and manned with negroes and mulattoes, from St. Domingo, a pilot boat built schooner of 100 or 110 tons, with a cannon on a pivot a midships, who robbed the passengers of all their clothes, in fact, even the hats off their heads, and beat them cruelly. The captain's name I believe is John Niclaw, formerly an apprentice to captain Gardner, of the Ruth and Mary, belonging to Mr. Coulter, and robbed me of half my clothes, and as much of the cargo as he could carry with him.

From a letter of May 11.

The privateer that robbed me has been brought into Novets in this island, by the crew, they say, that they rose and killed the captain, but I believe it to be false, as 4 or 5 men have been taken up on Long Island, & carried to New Providence, they said they belonged to a privateer, and that they went on shore to divert themselves, and that the crew ran off with the vessel. The capt. is a mulatto, and answers the description of Big Jack, as he called himself when he robbed me, but now says his name is Davis. I send you a list of articles he took from me:

The ship Mary, of Philadelphia, Maffit, sailed from Gibraltar on the 8th of February, 1819, bound for Havana. Nothing particular happened until Saturday, 15th March, at 4 p. m. the island of Henegaz bore N. W. by W. about 20 miles, saw a schooner to the windward, at 8 p. m. saw her before the wind, standing towards us; she hauled on a wind to the westward and kept on our weather beam all night—at 5 30 a. m. she was on our weather quarter, she bore down on us and brought us to—at 7 a. m. boarded us under Patriot colors, beat and plundered the passengers of all their clothes, and the ship of the following articles, viz: five pipes of red wine, 8 barrels white do. 6 boxes vermicella, and 21 do. raisins and peaches, 21 jars olives, 3 rolls tobacco, 1 box drygoods, contents unknown, 3 barrels salt provisions; 2 do of bread, 1 do of rice, 1 barrel of beans, part of 3 coils of rope, 2 pair studding sails and billiards, 2 purchase blocks, one compass, some paint and oil, a sword and belt, a cocked hat, 11 birds and 7 cages, a bolt of duck, all the carpenter's tools, about 12 pounds lead, some black varnish, a musket and a pistol, 1 barrel of bird seed, some candles, a silver candlestick and silver snuffers, a pair of spectacles and a dozen knives and forks—destroyed a quantity of wine and other liquors and ship stores, took about 12 lbs chocolate, 1 bottle tea, 1 pig—clothes from the captain, 3 pair cloth pantaloons, 4 shirts, a dozen pair stockings, 1 pair shoes, 8 waistcoats, 8 pair nankin pantaloons, 8 pair white linen do. 8 neck hudds, a pair silver buckles, two pair of drawers, and broke a thermometer.

They put a piece of new log line full of knots round two of the passengers' heads, and hove it taut with a heaver to make them own the cargo to be theirs.

JAMES MAFFIT, Captain.

SAGACITY OF THE HEDGE-HOG.
One afternoon last summer, as the game-keeper to Earl Galloway was passing by a wood, near Garlistown, he fell in with a hedge-hog, carrying on its back six pheasant's eggs, which it had pilfered from a nest hard by. The ingenuity of the creature was very conspicuous, as several of the remaining eggs were holed, which must have been done by it, when in the act of rolling itself over the nest, in order to make as many adhere to its prickles as possible. The urchin deliberately crawled into a furze bush where its nest was, and where the shells of several eggs were strewn around. This reminds us of another instance of the sagacity of this animal, recorded by Plutarch—it is as follows:—

Brussels, June 10.

A citizen of Cyzicus formerly acquired the reputation of a good mathematician, for having learned the property of a hedge-hog. It has its burrow open in divers places, and to several winds; and foreseeing the change of the wind, stops the hole on that side; which that citizen perceiving, gave the city certain predictions to what corner the wind would shift next."

An Extract from Irwin's Voyage up the Red Sea.
Yambo, Sunday, 25th May, 1777.
A caravan arrived this forenoon from Medina, which is but two days journey from hence. This was the first I had seen, and though it consisted but of 4 or 500 camels, I must confess myself to have been struck with the grandeur and novelty of the sight. We discerned it from afar, moving onward, with a quick though solemn pace, and as it passed near the beach, we could distinguish with our glasses, the economy of the whole. The major part of the camels were loaded with merchandise.

While the wooden bark ploughs the deep, and wafts from shore to shore the produce of each clime, this living vessel traverses the pathless waste, fraught with the precious treasures of the east. A caravan of camels exploring the wilds of Arabia, with nothing in view but sand and sky, and conducted by the planets to its desired haven, may well be likened to a fleet of vessels, which are not more useful in their way, or wonderful in their structure. As the ship alone can outlive the seas, in which the weaker boat must perish, so is the camel peculiarly adapted to a region, in which no other class of beasts could bear fatigue. He too experiences the chance of sublimity things. His mighty strength, his dauntless heart, sink beneath the whirlwind's rage, and like the towering ship, which winds and waves assail with ceaseless fury, he yields at length to inevitable fate.

Upwards of 40,000 dollars have been deposited in the New York Savings Bank, and 77,700 in that of Philadelphia.

SELECTED FOR THE BOSTON GAZETTE.
Messrs. Editors,
If the following little piece of Poetry does but give half the pleasure to your readers, that it has given to me, I think they will thank you for publishing it. Would that more of that sweet and lovely spirit of contentment, which in a wife breathes so great a charm around the connubial state, were to be found in all the walks of life. That spirit which makes every thing delightful, every thing happy, and blossoms even sorrow itself into joy.
C.

THE PEASANT AND HIS WIFE.
HE.
The long, long day, again has passed
In sorrow and distress;
I strive my best—but still strive in vain,
I labor hard—but still remain
Poor, and in wretchedness.

SHE.
Nay, we have health—you love your
And she returns its flame; [wife—
Want, still is absent from our cot,
God gives us bread to soothe our lot,
What more can you desire?
HE.
I wish'd to earn a little sum,
My dearest wife for thee;
I wish'd, by toiling day and night,
To gain some wealth, that might requite
Thy fond fidelity.

SHE.
No wealth repays fidelity,
Nor gold, nor monarch's crown;
My heart, which doth to thee incline,
Finds all its love repaid by thine,
And smiles at fortune's frown.

HE.
But, ah! to see thee live in want,
It fills my soul with care;
That you, so noble, just and good,
Must slave and toil for daily food,
That drives me to despair.

SHE.
I gaily work (God knows my heart)
Contented, at your side;
More joys than wealth can give, I prove,
To share thy sorrows and thy love—
Thy faithful heart's my pride.

HE.
But who, when I am snatched from thee
Will hush thy trembling sighs?
And when our babe shall weeping cry,
"O! mother, give me bread, I pray,"
Who then will heed its cries?

SHE.
God! who the worm and sparrow shields,
Man in his need can aid;
He'll be my comfort when thou'rt dead—
The orphan's sire will give him bread—
O! be his will obeyed!

HE.
Wife of my heart, bow great art thou!
Thy love is all my weal;
I feel so proud of one like thee—
Thy love, and thy fidelity
Inspire me with fresh zeal.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.
ON Monday the 25th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile upon his countenance, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with redannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Singer, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rose of King George, to Mr. George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excels, rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr. John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Fallsouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr. Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brattleboro, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental; two orchards of well-selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the River, will be taken in payment—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor.

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling
RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.
S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case; and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeyman's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or dissatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.
N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.
S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call. He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.

PROSPECTUS
Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

(Rev. WM. HAWLEY, Washington, Rev. WM. H. WILMER, Alexandria, Rev. OLIVER NORRIS, Alexandria, Rev. REUEL KEITH, Georgetown, assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.)

If any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprise and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principle of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part a Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprise of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publication will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to lose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successfully pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.
A volume of the Repository shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid. Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
